ERRATUM ORDER

It is noticed that there is a discrepancy crept in the Prospectus of U.G.Programme 2016-'17 under Clause 3.5 – Admissions regarding the weightage of marks for SSLC.

In the above circumstances, sanction has been accorded by the Vice Chancellor to correct and modify the "Clause 3.5 – Admissions" Prospectus of U.G.Programme 2016-'17 as furnished below:

3.5. Weightage of Marks for admission: Those who have studied Sanskrit as optional or second language at +2 or equivalent level will be eligible for a weightage of 50 marks for admission to B.A. Degree Programme. This will be added to the total marks obtained in the qualifying examination for calculating the index mark.

In the case of students, who have studied Sanskrit as Optional or Second Language at SSLC or equivalent examination and opted for any other language at the Pre Degree or equivalent examination, a weightage of 25 marks will be added to the total marks for admission to the B.A. However the total weightage will not exceed 50 marks.

Erratum orders are issued accordingly.
