Play- MATHILUKAL

Date: 9th March 2017

Venue: Koothambalam, SSUS

The play is a feminist reading of Vaikom Muhammed Baheer's Mathilukal. It is one of the most cherished and well-known love stories in Malayalam. Its hero, Basheer himself, and heroine, Narayani, never meet, yet they love each other passionately. Despite being imprisoned and separated by a huge wall that divides their prisons, the two romance each other.

Play- DHANASI

Date: 14 March 2017
Venue: Koothambalam
Participants: 85

Dhanasi is a free adaptation of Shakespeare's Othello performed by department of Theatre. Othello revolves around two central characters: Othello, a Moorish general in the Venetian army, and his treacherous ensign Iago. Given its varied and enduring themes of racism, love, jealousy, betrayal, revenge, and repentance, Othello is often performed in professional and community theatre alike, and has been the source for numerous operatic, film, and literary adaptations. The play was performed by the students of the department of Theatre for the University community.

Play- ELIKAL

The play was performed on 14-03-2017 at Koothambalam, main campus for the University community. The play showcases the societal domination in an individual's life. Men are portrayed as rats which trespasses the boundaries of personhood. It was directed by Nishad K B.
