Report on the talk of Agamanandan- Jeevithavum Pravarthanangalum

The vision of the study centre Agamananda swami Centre for Visual culture and Aesthetics was to develop in to a leading academic institution for the preservation, propagation and generation of knowledge related to the saint cum social reformer, Swami Agamananda(1896-1961),the founder of Sree Ramakrishna Advaita Asramam, Kalady. His ideals possess much relevance, practical value and are worthy enough to be cherished by one and all.

The study centre was inaugurated by Dr . M. C. Dileepkumar, the then Vice Chancellor, SSUS, Kalady on 25th Sepember, 2014 at Kanakadhara auditorium. The first talk of the study centre, was by Dr .M.M.Basheer which was held on the same day. A special message was conveyed by Prof, T. N.Sankara Pillai, Swami's disciple.

A talk by Sri Thalanad Chandrasekharan, Swami's disciple and Director, Agamananda Patanakendram , Thiruvananthapuram-which was titled as Swami Agamanandan- Jeevithavum pravarthanangalum was held on 09.03.2016. Dr M. Manimohanan, Professor & HOD , Department of Sanskrit Vyakarana presided over the function.

Sri Thalanad Chandrasekharan delivering speech on Agamananda on 09.03.2016

Each and every lecture organized under the auspices of the centre was an eye opener to the University fraternity flocked together to listen to the talk. The local community also took interest in attending each programme . All these programmes provided opportunity for the disciples of Swami to gather and share their experiences with the University community and well wishers from outside the University.
