ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Academic writing is a crucial aspect of knowledge production. Your work becomes part of history, leading to further debates, inspiring other scholars and creating greater insight into the world we are living in. The workshop would lead you through the intricacies of academic writing. Beginning from transforming your reflections into theoretical arguments, managing data bases, selecting suitable publications, writing abstracts, avoiding plagiarism, respecting and allowing multiple voices in your writing, sentence structuring and more. Bring the drafts that you are working on and let's go through the writing process together.
