THEATRE AND PERFORMING ARTS

Theatre is an ensemble art. So the Department of Theatre always encourages fellow departments to development the skills and abilities so as to nourish a multidisciplinary and multicultural perspectives. Theatre department tries to accommodate students from other departments in the process of play making and modes of demonstration. It gives an opportunity for the students especially from Sanskrit, Dance, Music and Painting departments to get experience in their specified fields. Moreover the department welcomes the whole University community including faculty members and administrative staff to participate in play production as actors. Programmes hosted by the department always received widespread acceptance and remained to be one of the distinguished modes of recreation and entertainment. Those who are interested in participating shall contact Smt Usha P K, Faculty, Department of Theatre.
